Rev. and Mrs Robinson Celebrated Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Sunday

The Reverend and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Robinson, in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, were guests of honor Sunday afternoon when their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Robinson, entertained at a reception at the Appomattox High School cafeteria between the hours of two and four o'clock.

Accentuating the color of gold, arrangements of yellow gladioli and asters were on the table and throughout the large room.

A three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Kenneth E. Coleman and Mrs. G. Lewis Doss poured punch. Attractive napkins, inscribed in gold with "Sophie and Ben, October 10, 1904," were used. Other delicacies, in keeping with the color scheme of gold, were served.

Mrs. J. Edwin Cawthorne provided piano music during the afternoon, playing many songs of the yesteryears.

Others assisting in caring for the guests were Mrs. H. G. Johnson Mrs. L. Evrard Conner, Mrs. James B. Whitehead, Mrs. James A. Conner, Mrs. L. L. Gayle, Mrs. J. Lloyd Hudson, Mrs. Floyd L. Mitchell Mrs. C. Vernell Mitchell, Mrs. W. F. Hanenkrat and Miss Rosa Mae Woolridge.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robinson were married October 10, 1904, in the City of Norfolk. The officiating ministers were the late Rev. J. D. Howell, father of the bride, and the late Rev. Calvin S. Blackwell. Mrs. Robinson was the former Miss Sophie M. Howell. They have made their home here since his retirement from the Baptist ministry.

GRADE S. C. A.

The Appomattox Grade S. C. A. held its first meeting of the school year in the auditorium October 8. The devotional was led by the Rev. B. T. Price. His remarks were very inspiring. His main thought was, "Having a Purpose in Life."

Patricia Price rendered an accordian solo.

The seventh grade pupils sang, "Church in the Wildwood."

All of the new officers of the year stood as they were introduced by Miss Flora Williams, sponsor.

Objectives of the S. C. A. were read by Audrey Evans.

Each vice-president brought in dues from their room, which was almost 100 per cent.

Banners for attendance and five-pointers were presented by Miss Williams to Mrs. Carson and Miss Cullop in upper elementary, Mrs. Sallie Martin and Mrs. Rogers primary.

Officers for 1954-55 are:
President, Steve Runkle
Secretary, Carol Couch

BOW-HUNTING IN VIRGINIA

There seems to be considerable misunderstand about bow-hunting west of the Blue Ridge, Executive director I. T. Quinn of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries says that bow-hunting will be permitted statewide in all counties of the state having an open season on bear and deer, including the two National Forest areas, from November 1 to November 10, inclusive.

Deer of either sex may be taken in Frederick, Warren, Page, Rockingham, Augusta, Highland, Shenandoah and Bath Counties on the last day of the season November 20.

Likewise, deer of either sex may be taken during the week beginning the third Monday in November through November 20, under special supervision of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, in certain sections of Wise and Scott Counties.

FAMILY REUNION

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. John D. Mann Saturday, October 9. There were 46 present. Only one of her children was absent, Sgt. John Randolph Mann, who is with the U. S. Army in Austria.

A bountiful supper was served in buffet style, after which music and singing was enjoyed until a late hour. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Greenlee Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cyrus, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cyrus and son, Miss Nancy Cyrus, Mr. Ronnie Wells, and Miss Maggie Mann, all of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Godsey, Jack Godsey, Mrs. Willard Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chernault and family, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Chernault, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Mann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mays and Mrs. Bessie Smith, all of Appomattox. A prayer, written by Mrs. Mann's brother, George W. Chernault, of Roanoke, who could not be present, was read before the supper was served.
